

—ATTEND CANCER PLANNING MEETING—Left to right: Ralph J. Hill, Utah 1965 State Crusade Chairman; Mrs. Florence Nielson, Wasatch County Unit Chairman; Mrs. Leda Greer, Wasatch County Crusade Chairman; James P. Cooney, M. D., Vice Pres. Medical Affairs, National American Cancer Society, were among those attending the two-day seminar on Cancer held in Salt Lake.

Cancer Leaders Attend Planning Session in S.L.

Over 150 volunteer leaders from 40 county units of the American Cancer Society assembled at the Hotel Utah for a two-day leadership conference in preparation for the annual April Cancer Crusade.

Salt Lake businessman Ralph J. Hill, newly-appointed state Crusade chairman, accepted a challenge in behalf of Utah's army of 12,000 cancer volunteers to "better its best effort" in the April Crusade. Mr. Hill is manager of the Salt Lake City branch of Beneficial Life Insurance Co.

A 1965 goal for the entire state was set at $185,000.00 and Wasatch County's quota was set at $900.00. This county exceeded its quota in 1964 by $80.00 and will try to do better in 1965.

Dr. James P. Cooney, Vice President of Medical Affairs for ACS, spoke at the banquet Thursday evening on the treatment and control of cancer.

Friday morning, a panel of noted physicians discussed the medical aspects of cancer control. The panel was composed of Dr. James O. Gillespie, national medical affairs representative, Dr. Ronald N. Grant, director of professional education for ACS, and Dr. Wallace L. Chambers, Utah's medical delegate to the ACS board of directors. Dr. Cooney acted as moderator.

A tour of the Holy Cross Hospital pathological laboratory was conducted Friday afternoon by Dr. Cyril D. Fullmer. He showed the volunteer leaders how cancer is detected under the microscope. This tour concluded the two-day conference.

Mrs. Florence Nielson, county unit chairman, Mrs. Leda Greer, county Crusade chairman, Mrs. Wanda Grisseman, county publicity chairman, and Mrs. Bertha Clyde County service chairman attended the conference from Wasatch Co.

From Center Creek

Lake to be with his parents, Bp. and Mrs. Delbert Sweat and Lew, before his service in the National Guard. His mother accompanied him to Salt Lake and he left on Wednesday for his base in Missouri.

—Center—

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wade had members of their family for Sunday dinner while Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Wade were in the process of moving from Heber to the Wm. Bond home in Lake Creek.

—Center—

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ryan of Camp Williams visited a day with his mother, Mrs. Sarah Ryan.

—Center—

Mrs. Helen Eldredge and Raymond and Mr. and Mrs. Louris Mahoney were in Salt Lake to the temple Friday.

—Center—

Mrs. Myrtle Ivie accompanied her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver High and family through the temple in Salt Lake last Friday.

—Center—

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Anderson of Provo and Ray and Rodney Mahoney spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Louris Mahoney and worked on genealogy.

—Center—

Mr. and Mrs. Louris Mahoney visited Sunday in Salt Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mahoney and family.

—Center—

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sweat visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jeffs.

—Center—

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cluff of Boise, Idaho visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burgener and family.

—Center—

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Burgener and family returned to Salt Lake to make their home.

CARD OF THANKS

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES ANDERSON

Open House to Honor Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson on Sunday, Feb. 14th

An invitation is cordially extended to all friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, to an open house at the home of their son, Ray Anderson, 835 South Main Street, Heber City, February 14, 1965 ,between the hours of 1:00 and 5:00 p. m.

The couple have been lifelong residents of Heber Valley. They were married February 10, 1915 at Heber City. It was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple.

Charles has been a prominent farmer all his life with considerable experience in timbering and construction work. He was the second person in the valley to own an automobile and taught many people how to drive.

Charles was born November 22, 1885 at Heber to Nels and Martha Johnson Anderson. He attended school in Heber.

Lena Ida Sonderegger was born August 8, 1887 at Midway, Utah to Johannes and Bertha Buhler Sonderegger. She attended school in Midway.

The couple are the parents of four sons and four daughters: Ray S., Mrs. Richard (Rhea) Trimble, Mrs. Errol (Dona) Mahoney, Heber; Mrs. Harry (Frenna) Mayo, Fontana, California; Victor, St. George; Melvin, Logan; Mrs. Meloy (Afton) Johnson, Roy and Ralph, Ogden.

The family would like to offer their services in providing transportation to valley residents. Please contact Ray, Rhea or Dona if these services can be used.

No gifts please.

A letter from Mrs. C. P. Brienholt of Phoenix, Arizona tells us they are well, they have enjoyed temple sessions and visiting with Dawson and Helen Lindsay, Douglas and Ethel Murdock who also attended Sunday School with them. Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Montgomery called to see them. Her sister, Clara Pyper, 84, went by plane with family members to Mesa to attend a temple marriage of a grandson. On her return had surgery at the American Fork Hospital and is mending nicely. Irene Duke has been ill in bed. Dewey Moulton is mending slowly and will continue to stay there for quite some time on doctor's orders.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl N. Carlile had their daughter, Marion and husband, Dean Hicken, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Hicken, all of Logan as their dinner guests on Thursday. They came to be with their nieces and cousins, Thelma O. Wootton and Enid D. Watkins at the time of their husbands' deaths and burials.

Pleasant Grove 12 to 35.

January 12 — Wasatch bea[t] Provo 29-19.

January 13 — Wasatch wa[s] beaten by Morgan 19 to 27.

January 18 — Wasatch wa[s] beaten by Union 26-19.

January 21 — Wasatch defeated North Summit 45 to 5.

January 25 — Wasatch defeated Spanish Fork 35 to 11.

A strong Morgan wrestling team downed the Wasps by the score of 29 to 14. Results of the matches were as follows:

98 lbs. - Ford (W) draw, Williams (M), 6-6; 103 lbs. - G. Clegg (W) dec. Jones (M) 4-0; 112 lbs. - A. Clegg (W) dec. Woolsey (M) 412; 120 lbs. - Wright (W) dec. Wilkenson (M) 4-0; 127 lbs. - Carter (M) dec. Tree (W) 6-0; 133 lbs. - Peterson (M) pin Giles (W) 1st round; 138 lbs. - Kester (M) dec. Mecham (W) 7-1; 145 lbs. - B. Pentz (M) dec. Clyde (W) 4-0; 154 lbs. - S. Pentz (M) dec. Davis (W) 7-2; 165 lbs. - Walker (M) pin Vincent (W) 2nd round; 180 lbs. - Meek (W) dec. Bean (M) 6-2; unlimited - Mecham (M) pin Clayburn (W) 2nd round.

In a match with Uintah held on Saturday, January 6, the last year's runner-up in state competition outlasted the Wasps by the

